

Hi All Tavonians Friends

This is just a quick reminder that we have a playreading booked for this Wednesday evening (5th October) in the cafe at the Wharf at 7 pm. We will be reading a section of a very amusing murder mystery, and some selections from plays we might consider for our March production. Anyone interested in getting involved with this is very welcome, and also anyone who enjoys playreading for its own sake.

Look forward to seeing you there - much better than Bridget Jones' Baby. Come along at 7 pm so you can pick up something from the bar and come into the cafe before the box office gets thronged...

We are planning further playreadings after Christmas - January, February, April and May - watch this space for full details of interesting plays to read.

Plans and rehearsals are in full swing for The Railway Children - you may have seen the adverts in the press. This is an exciting project - if you are interested in being involved there are still backstage and front of house opportunities - in my experience the preparation process for the production is great fun. Tickets now available from our website and from the local outlets listed.

Don't forget to put the Christmas party in your diary before it gets too full - very informal get-together with nibbles, drinks, perhaps a playreading, or bring a Christmassy reading or quiz! Thursday 15th December.

Hope to see you on Wednesday, or at any of these events...
