

Liaison

A Word in Your Ear

Darlings, as you may have noticed, our mini-revamp is still a fabulous work in progress. This, however, is only a temporary measure as we will be having an utterly divine facelift at the end of January 2009.

We would absolutely adore for you to bring old friends or simply come along and meet new friends, 'in other words, let there be love' which, after all, is what Liaison is all about.

Our desire is to regale you with splendid delights from our hot house of a kitchen, using only the most exquisite and fresh local produce available.

Sweeties, as our dearest friends, you will know by now that we at Liaison do love a party. In light of this, we begin on Fridays with two live music acts and, as one can never party too much, we will do it all again on Saturday with a change of sound and rhythm.

Sunday is a day for recovering and regaining our decorum, hence sit back and shove a friends behind the Open Mic for a spot of Poetry Reading, Comedy Sketches, Singing and the like.

While Cook is preparing your Fresh, Homemade meal, have a Tête-à-Tête with the next table and enjoy the Ambience.
